Blessed to be a Blessing...

It is remarkable how easy it is to bless others, to speak good things to and about them, to call forth their beauty and truth, when you yourself are in touch with your own blessedness. The blessed one always blesses. And people want to be blessed! This is so apparent wherever you go. No one is brought to life through curses, gossip, accusations, or blaming. There is so much taking place around us all the time. And it calls forth only darkness, destruction, and death. As the "blessed ones," we can walk through this world and offer blessings. It doesn't require much effort. It flows naturally from our hearts. When we hear within ourselves the voice calling us by name and blessing us, the darkness no longer distracts us. The voice that calls us the Beloved will give us words to bless others and reveal to them that they are no less blessed than we.

- Henri J.M. Nouwen

"Blessed to be a blessing" has been the passion in my heart for as long as I can remember, and the motivation for entering Seminary. After ordination, the call to be sent (to bless others!) was the thesis of my Doctor of Ministry degree. I am and have been thoroughly invested in persuading others, according to the word of God, to recognize the blessing they have been given, and in turn, freely give such blessings to others.

Renowned leader in Christian piety and practice, is the late Henri Nouwen, whose books have been read by countless people seeking a close relationship with God the Father, Son, and Spirit. His focus in the quote above has to do with one's personal understanding and it is written for personal reflection. But, if the people of any congregation were to receive and practice the blessing experience Nouwen writes of, imagine how blessed would be the church and how natural it would become to share our blessings with others!

In Christ's Love,

Pastor Lisa

HEALTH AND PEACE IN THE NEW YEAR

What are relationships based on and how do they work well?

This is a question you might hear in a pre-marital counseling session, or from someone you've invited in to help with your own marriage. But it is really important to remember that a church congregation is built on relationships as well. The New Testament affirms this very thing, and St Paul is a great relationship coach in his letters to the various Christian congregations in his day.

Even churches can exhibit relational issues, because the church is a group of human beings, not one of whom is perfect and/or your favorite person ever. That's why grace is so important, and grace doesn't always happen easily; one needs to intentionally seek to develop a gracious spirit towards others.

As an imperfect human being in an imperfect congregation we need to learn to form new habits; healthy habits, so that our common life is pleasing for us and pleasing to the Lord. Communication is the number one stumbling stone in marriages. I know this from my pastoral counseling years, and guiding a congregation to congregational health is a priority.

In light of this, the Session is ready to offer two workshops from the organization formed for the purpose of leading congregations to improved health. The organization is simply named "Healthy Congregations" and there are people within our Presbytery that have been trained as facilitators.

Our dates for 2 workshops are tentative until confirmed by the facilitators who have already met with Session. The workshops include a video lesson and group discussions. Each of the 2 sessions, with more to come if desired, will last around 2 and a half hours. It is certainly a time commitment that can bring great results for any congregation.

On behalf of the Session,

Rev. Dr. Lisa Ruth Mays

The Deacons of the FPC would like to thank members of the congregation and other family/friends for helping our mission of the Angel and Mitten Trees be such a success. With your participation we were able to provide 19 children with gifts for Christmas through the Delhi Children's Christmas Fund. We worked with Delaware Opportunities to make all this happen. THANK-YOU!

Along with this we would also like to thank Julia Ward and the Youth Group who did some shopping for those of us that decided to use their expertise. That certainly was appreciated. THANK-YOU!

The Deacons also appreciated the donation of poinsettias from purchasers who did not wish to take their poinsettias home. These were all delivered to very happy and appreciative church members to brighten up their holidays. THANK-YOU!

We all want to wish everyone a Happy and Healthy New Year. 2021 continued with COVID and strains of COVID and we can only hope that 2022 will bring us a brighter future. Please stay safe. If anyone reading this would like to become a Deacon and join us with these rewarding activities that we do, please contact Susie Little or any Deacon. Sadly, we say "goodbye" to Deacons Betty Bell and Joyce Goff and happily welcome Kathy Martin. We are always willing to accept new members. THANK-YOU!

Lighting the Way for Others

When Ida Nelson, head tribal clerk of a remote Alaskan village, heard an airplane flying low after dark, she knew something was wrong. Igiugig, population 70, isn't normally a nighttime destination. Indeed, the medevac flight was coming to pick up a sick child.

Because the local airstrip's lights had been vandalized, the plane was having trouble landing. Nelson began alerting neighbors, and within minutes, villagers lined the runway with their vehicles, headlights blazing. The pilot was able to land and then safely deliver the sick child to an Anchorage hospital. The airlift service praised the residents' determination, but Nelson describes their effort as "normal" and "ordinary."

What everyday actions can you use to provide light amid darkness? How can you shine Jesus' light in a world that needs him?

Reaching Out

KENTUCKY RELIEF

In December 2021 the Kirk, at the suggestion of the Weavers, took on a mission to ship clothing to those in need from the recent storms in Kentucky. We were able to reach out to Bea Mooney who now lives in Kentucky and connect through her pastor to a church that was willing to accept our clothing donations and serve as a distribution site. Five cartons of clothing were packed and shipped via UPS at the Delhi Paint and Paper store. Jane and Harold, owners of the paint store waived their UPS fees to assist in minimizing the cost of shipping those items. Thanks to all who made this mission a success.

During the month of January, we will be having a special offering collection to benefit those in Kentucky. If you would like to support this mission, please contribute, noting that this donation is to benefit Kentucky relief.

Mission news submitted by Kathy Sullivan

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE

In February we will be supporting the Church World Service Tools and Blankets mission. Our contributions provide warmth, comfort and hope to neighbors near and far, including refugees, migrant families and those who are struggling in the face of extreme circumstances. Because of our support to this mission, CWS is able to respond when disasters occur. Look for more information in the Church Life as we move into February.

THANK YOU!

A big thank you goes out to those that donated food to the bazaar luncheon. A special thank you goes to Berry Brook Farm who donated salad greens for the luncheon. The donations allowed us to be very successful with our fund raiser.

MISSION COMMITTEE

If you feel called, the Mission committee is seeking volunteers to serve on the committee. It involves a commitment to bi-monthly meetings to work on determining the mission focus of our church. If you are willing to help with this, please let Kathy Sullivan know or leave a message in the church office.

If you know of anyone who is in the hospital or in need of pastoral care, please call the church office. We would rather be notified ten times than not be aware of the needs of the church family!

Our prayers are with those who have recently had outpatient procedures, surgery, are facing major changes in their lives, been hospitalized or are facing difficult health concerns.

Being Neighborly

The last time you moved into a new community, did your neighbors welcome you? From previous moves, I fondly recall receiving smiles, handshakes, baked goods and houseplants. Because one new neighborhood included two parsonages, I wasn't surprised to receive invitations to worship. After that, I began anticipating similar invitations, even though we had a church home. We don't always take our new neighbors up on the offers, but knowing that churchgoers live nearby is comforting.

When a new family moves into your neighborhood, how do you respond? Does it cross your mind to invite them to worship? Maybe they're waiting for — even needing — that invitation. To ask, you don't need to be a pastor or a member of the evangelism committee ... just a friendly neighbor.

—Julie Lee

Thank You

Follow the Star was a wonderful evening!

Thank you to all who helped out: The Maxwells, Wickhams and Mannings for their yards; Dickens the donkey with Kelsey Little and Dylan Cole; Clark Farms for the chocolate milk; Barb Leo, Carolyn Massey and Pastor Lisa for serving the hot chocolate and collecting the donations for the food drive! Also, thanks to Tom Leo for organizing the Living Nativity. Let's continue to follow the light as we travel through 2022.

Susie Little

Thank you to everyone who made the Follow the Star to the Living Nativity event possible and a great success this year. Because of your generous donations of time, we were able to enhance the Christmas season for many and remember the true meaning of Christmas. We offer a very special thank you to Susie Little for organizing Follow The Star and to Tom Leo who once again took charge of the Living Nativity.

We would like to take a moment to thank the officers that are going off the church's boards at this time for their service and dedication to our church - from the Session, Tom Philion - as Clerk of Session, Sarah Philion - from the Board of Deacons, Betty Bell and Joyce Goff - and from the Board of Trustees, Tom Leo, Joe Maxwell and Brian Sprague. Again, thank you for all you do in service to the Lord.

A big thank you from the two of us to everyone who made 1st Pres Church's Holiday Bazaar the success it was! Thanks to those who helped set up, worked the booths, assisted with take-down and returning the church to normalcy and of course, thanks to the shoppers. It was a great day, making over $4500 with proceeds still coming in. Thanks to one and all!

Betty Bell & Karen LaFever, co-chairmen

First Presbyterian Church Family,

Thank you so much for the Holiday card and the gift card. It was great to hear from you. I am so grateful for your continuous support. I am looking forward to seeing everyone at the Christmas Eve service again this year. Thank you again!

Tyler Gregory

Thank you for my certificate for being a member for 75 years. I still have the Bible I received when I joined. It has gotten so it is rather old.
