People: We welcome one another as sisters and brothers in Christ.

Leader: God offers love to all people in the person and presence of Jesus.

People: May Jesus touch our hearts today that we might become instruments of God's love and power in the world.

*Hymn

"When Morning Gilds the Skies"

#667

Prayer of Confession – Pastor Jamie Tyrrell

Dear Lord and Creator of all that is, you have promised us that there is enough. Yet at times we confuse wanting with needing. At other times we are anxious about tomorrow, so we hold onto everything we can in the present. We say we love a generous God, but we are not generous ourselves. We are Royal Children. Forgive us when we act like there is never enough. In Christ's Name, Amen.

(A moment for silent personal prayer of confession)

Assurance of Pardon – Pastor Jamie Tyrrell

Leader: Surely this is our God; we trusted in him, and he saved us. This is the LORD, we trusted in him; let us rejoice and be glad in his salvation. (Isaiah 25:9)

People: Thanks be to God. Amen.

*Choral Response

"Gloria Patri"

#581

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.*

*Sharing the Peace (We remain standing in place and wave to others)

One: The peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

Interlude

"Near to the Heart of God"

by McAfee, arr. by Ferrin

Moment for Bountiful Giving

Prayer for Illumination – Rev. Ernie Varga

God of all generations, send us your Holy Spirit as we listen to, read, and interpret the Scriptures. Open our minds to your wisdom, open our eyes to see how to serve you, and open our hearts to share in your healing love. Amen.

Epistle Reading – 2 Corinthians 8:7-15

But since you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in the love we have kindled in you—see that you also excel in this grace of giving. I am not commanding you, but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others. For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich. And here is my judgment about what is best for you in this matter. Last year you were the first not only to give but also to have the desire to do so. Now finish the work, so that your eager willingness to do it may be matched by your completion of it, according to your means. For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have. Our desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed, but that there might be equality. At the present time your plenty will supply what they need, so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need. The goal is equality, as it is written: “The one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little.”

Leader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

*Hymn

“I Will Come to You”

Gospel Reading – Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had again crossed over by boat to the other side of the lake, a large crowd gathered around him while he was by the lake. Then one of the synagogue leaders, named Jairus, came, and when he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet. He pleaded earnestly with him, “My little daughter is dying. Please come and put your hands on her so that she will be healed and live.” So Jesus went with him. A large crowd followed and pressed around him. And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years. She had suffered a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse. When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, because she thought, “If I just touch his clothes, I will be healed.” Immediately her bleeding stopped and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering. At once Jesus realized that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched my clothes?” “You see the people crowding against you,” his disciples answered, “and yet you can ask, ‘Who touched me?’” But Jesus kept looking around to see who had done it. Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell at his feet and, trembling with fear, told him the whole truth. He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be freed from your suffering.” While Jesus was still speaking, some people came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue leader. “Your daughter is dead,” they said. “Why bother the teacher anymore?” Overhearing what they said, Jesus told him, “Don’t be afraid; just believe.” He did not let anyone follow him except Peter, James and John the brother of James. When they came to the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw a commotion, with people crying and wailing loudly. He went in and said to them, “Why all this commotion and wailing? The child is not dead but asleep.” But they laughed at him. After he put them all out, he took the child’s father and mother and the disciples who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha koum!” (which means “Little girl, I say to you, get up!”). Immediately the girl stood up and began to walk around (she was twelve years old). At this they were completely astonished. He gave strict orders not to let anyone know about this, and told them to give her something to eat.

The Mission Committee is sponsoring "A Cookie for a Cause" on July 5th at the Fair on the Square. We are looking for cookies to sell. The idea is for people to give a donation for one of the missions we support: Pakistan, Cambodia and the Delhi Food Bank. For their donation, they get cookies - big cookies, individually wrapped. Packages of 6 or 12 would be great. Please drop off your cookies at the Square by 5:00! Thank you for your support!

On Wednesdays at 7:30am there is a Men's Bible Study meeting in the Library. There is a signup sheet in the New Narthex if you are interested.

The TRUSTEES responsible for counting today are Kevin Lee and Cullen LaFever. The Trustees responsible for counting on July 7 are Kathy Beveridge and Cullen LaFever.

Devotional booklets (Upper Room and Daily Bread) are available outside the office and in the new narthex. Please take one for your daily devotions!

THOUGHTS ON GIVING “...as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their want, so that their abundance may supply your want, that there may be equality.” 2 Corinthians 8:14. One of the tenants of living a grateful and generous lifestyle is giving without expecting anything in return. It is important that we not only grow, nurture, and share our gifts; but that we also teach our children and encourage others to do the same. This is the communal aspect of our faith. We are the “Body of Christ.” We are called to be dependent on each other and not live in isolation.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER: That we turn our daily focus to God and others to develop a “God-centered” lifestyle.
